Argentina

Unlocking Private and Policy Finance for Nature

Results

Argentina launched the world's first jaguar protection insurance

Compensates ranchers for livestock losses linked to jaguars, helping reduce retaliatory killings

Covers 100,000 people in Argentina's Misiones Province

Corporate Sponsorship for Conservation

A corporate sponsorship scheme channels private sector funding to protected areas, improving infrastructure and management while building long-term partnerships that benefit conservation and businesses.

Priority Investment Needs 2026-2030

Protected Area Sponsorship

Create private co-financing for parks and visitor infrastructure and improved management across national parks system.

FINANCE NEED
US$1.1 million

EXPECTED FINANCE RESULT
US$25-50 million

Scale up Jaguar insurance

Expand pioneering insurance to reduce retaliatory jaguar killings, through livestock compensation.

FINANCE NEED
US$900,000

EXPECTED RESULT
Reduce wildlife losses

Misiones REDD+

Scale forest finance model protecting approx. 1.6m hectares of forests and dependent livelihoods.

FINANCE NEED
US$900,000

EXPECTED FINANCE RESULT
US$250+ million

Screening and Greening Subsidies

Identification, assessment, and pilot reform or reallocation of selected subsidies toward biodiversity-positive incentives.

FINANCE NEED
US$500,000

EXPECTED RESULT
Greening Finance

Investment Needs

US$3.4

MILLION

for transformative impact by 2030

